Cutting the flesh is a painful, bloody sacrifice.

Without circumcision there is no covenant, no serving of God. A sign of the covenant is cutting off the flesh.

Every part of us must be circumcised figuratively.
We must make a covenant with God with every part of our body to cut off the flesh and to serve God with all parts of our body.

The term UNcircumcision signified that which is unclean and unacceptable to God.
When we live a life that is uncircumcised, when we live a life that is fleshy, when we have not cut off the things of the world, we are unclean and unacceptable to the Lord.

When we put away our abominations; the sins, the fleshy attitudes; the things that we are doing, hearing, looking at; the people that we are with that do not please God; the music that we have that doesn't please God, then we are circumcising ourselves unto the Lord, and then there is life and not death.
